Tony Sylvestri has played professional baseball for four years in the Florida Marlins and San Francisco Giants organizations. He has coached various teams including San Mateo Joe Dimaggio, Capuchino High School and currently Aptos Middle School. He is a graduate of University of San Francisco where he earned First Team All West Coast Conference. Presently, he is a teacher/coach at Aptos Middle School in San Francisco.

Known for his defensive skills, Tony will teach the players important skills such as eye-hand coordination, proper foot-work, and the basic fundamentals of baseball.

Each day there will be three new fundamentals learned at different stations. Examples include:

Batting

Fielding

Baserunning

Players will be grouped by age and experience at each station
