DAILY GAME

Tony Sylvestri has played professional baseball for four years in the Florida Marlins and San Francisco Giants organizations. He has coached numerous teams including San Mateo Joe Dimaggio, Capuchino High School, Aptos Middle School, Triple H and currently for the West Coast Federals. He is a graduate of University of San Francisco where he earned First Team All West Coast Conference.

Known for his defensive skills, Tony will teach the players important skills such as fielding, hitting, base-running, proper foot-work, and the fundamentals of baseball.

Each day there will be three new fundamentals learned at different stations. Examples include:

Batting

Fielding

Baserunning

Players will be grouped by age and experience at each station
